NHS
South Devon and Torbay
Clinical Commissioning Group

Shared records

Making your local care record work better for you

This practice is part of the local shared care record initiative. This means that it is possible for you to give permission for other health care professionals to view your GP health record when they are providing you with care.

If you have any concerns for questions, please take a copy of our leaflet.

